Current Position

BHNs Student Blog Manager

How long have you been a RDN?

Still a student! Hope to sit for my exam sometime in 2020 (once I finish my internship)

How long have you been in the Behavior Health Nutrition area?

This is my second year in the DPG.

Why did you join BHN?

I joined the BHN DPG to network and explore career options in behavioral health. I have a strong interest in working in this realm of nutrition; so I wanted to join a group that I could use for resources and to connect with RDs and fellow students with similar interests!

How has BHN helped you professionally?

As a student, it has helped me learn more about the career opportunities available in this field. It has also helped me get valuable volunteer experience. I look forward to my role as Student Blog Manager this year and connecting with more people through this position!

What do you think other RD's should know about BHN?

For students, I think this is an amazing place to network, learn more about behavioral health, and volunteer. There are many opportunities available to get more involved, like writing for the student blog!

A little about me

I'm a student in University of Alabama's Food and Nutrition distance program. Nutrition will be a career change for me! My first Bachelors' is in Communication Design from CSU, Chico. I'm originally from the San Francisco Bay Area, and currently live in the Nashville area with my husband and pitbull puppy, Bailey. Hope to graduate in December and apply for a DI in the Spring!
